Personal Education. Lifetime Success.®

Who is Bryant & Stratton College?

The answer is simple.

We're a private career college offering a wide range of in-demand degree programs. But there is so much more to our story. Bryant & Stratton College is also a place where you'll feel totally supported every step of the way and receive the quality, personal education you need for lifetime success. All the degree programs at Bryant & Stratton College utilize technology. That's because, no matter what field you're in – business, healthcare, criminal justice, graphic design and more – technology will be at the core of every job and every career in the 21st century. If you are a Bryant & Stratton College student, you'll use computers every day. You'll learn how to use spreadsheet, database and word processing software. And as a result, you'll gain the technical knowledge and skills employers expect and value.

You'll feel comfortable, like you belong at Bryant & Stratton College. Everyone on campus, from our academic advisors and faculty to support staff, is here to help you succeed.

You'll also learn the critical soft skills employers demand today. These include the fundamentals: writing proficiency, mathematics, listening and speaking competencies; as well as the skills you need to be a valuable employee, like problem-solving, decision-making, idea-generating and others. In addition to teaching these important skills, Bryant & Stratton College also helps you develop the personal qualities that are essential in supporting the courses in your program major, like integrity, responsibility and self-esteem. It's this total package — a well-rounded education with a strong career focus — that helps differentiate Bryant & Stratton from other colleges, and more importantly, can help you stand out in the employment market and your future career.

Bryant & Stratton College students gain the critical skills, technical knowledge and personal qualities top employers value and respect.

REAL LIFE EXPERIENCE IS SUCH AN IMPORTANT PART OF LEARNING. THAT BECAME PRETTY CLEAR TO CHRIS PERRY AS HE STOOD PRESENTING HIS PACKAGING DESIGN IDEAS TO THE MARKETING TEAM AT A LOCAL COMPANY.

“ Bill gave me a chance. Not just in the classroom, but in the boardroom. ”

Career Management Seminar

Through classroom instruction and simulation, each student develops solid employment strategies and establishes realistic goals for placement. They develop a personal marketing plan, utilize networking skills, fine-tune their resume, and present their evolving portfolio as part of a professional interview package.

Capstone

In this course, students will design, execute and present the outcomes of a capstone project. Students will be challenged to use their knowledge, skills and behaviors developed over the course of their program studies to solve real-world problems in their career discipline. Students will be evaluated from both academic and professional standards. The capstone project will be a portfolio development exhibit.

Portfolio Development

All students at Bryant & Stratton College develop a learning and career portfolio during their studies. It's a representation of your lifelong learning competencies, technical skills and abilities – a unique career-related package that will help you market yourself and distinguish you from “competitors” in the employment market. The portfolio will serve as an excellent roadmap to your long-term career success. It will also help you define and clarify your formal and informal lifelong learning goals and plans.

Bryant & Stratton College classes are taught by highly credentialed, experienced instructors so you'll receive the personal instruction and experience to feel totally confident in the classroom and in your career. Your curriculum will focus on employers' real needs – combining an array of progressive learning approaches, including classroom discussions, practical demonstrations and hands-on experience.

AT BRYANT & STRATTON COLLEGE, WE BELIEVE THAT LEARNING DOESN'T STOP WHEN YOU GET YOUR DEGREE. WE TAUGHT CECILIA THAT, AND EVEN THOUGH SHE HAS A GREAT JOB AS A PARALEGAL, SHE AND KRISTINE CONTINUE TO PLAN HER GROWING FUTURE IN LAW.

How Does an Online Degree Work?

Online learning is a practical and convenient way to take courses at Bryant & Stratton College. With high gas prices, family and job responsibilities, commuting to college to take a few classes may be a difficult prospect.

Class Schedule – Online Schedule

Online courses are available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week at a computer located anywhere in the world with an Internet connection. Online classes have multiple weekly deadlines and are identified in Eastern Time. Students can budget their time to attend class (read lecture material, read announcements, complete tests, and participate in discussion) and to complete homework (assignments, projects, reading the text book, etc...) to meet weekly deadlines. Online courses are offered in two 7.5 week sessions within the traditional 15 week semester.

AT BRYANT & STRATTON COLLEGE, WE'RE MORE CONCERNED WITH HELPING OUR STUDENTS THAN ANYTHING ELSE. NICOLE UNDERSTANDS THAT. IT'S HELPING HER TO BECOME THE GRAPHIC DESIGNER SHE ALWAYS DREAMED OF BEING.

Employer Relations

We continually reach out to our employer partners and the rest of the business community to find out what skills employers are looking for and what attributes they want in an employee. We integrate what we learn from our Employer Advisory Board into our curriculum so that, when you graduate, you have the marketable skills you need to start your career.

Career Services

Once you graduate, we help you put the skills you've learned to work. How? We continually monitor the marketplace to find out what sectors of the economy are expected to grow—identifying potential job opportunities for our graduates. Personal Career Advisement is available to all Bryant & Stratton College graduates and alumni—to help you find great positions following graduation and beyond. Our Career Services Department supports you with everything you need—resume preparation, portfolio development and interviewing guidance—to help you present yourself to future employers in the best possible light and differentiate yourself from others competing for a potential position.

Bryant & Stratton College constantly monitors employers' needs and implements new programs to provide you with the skills and attributes employers are currently looking for.
